ST, Sept. 26, 1878,

THE COMING GENERAL CONFERENCE

The General Conference to be held in connection with the camp-meeting at Battle Creek, beginning Oct. 2, 1878, will be the most important one which has been held by our people for many years. Matters of the greatest interest will come up to be acted upon, matters which will affect the cause throughout the wide harvest-field. . . .

All our leading ministers will probably be in attendance. Brother and Sister White will be there. We are glad to be able to say that Brother White is still improving in health. He will be able, we hope, to speak at this meeting, and to counsel with the brethren as he has in former years.

After the camp-meeting is over, it is expected that the delegates will remain a week, during which time all matters of importance to our work will be thoroughly discussed. The secretary of each State Conference should give a full and reliable report of the standing of his Conference. . . .

The camp-meeting proper will break up Wednesday morning, October 9. None who attend the meeting should calculate to leave before that time.

Pray God to signally bless this important Conference of his servants.

D. M. Carright.
