

DF DF 1030d
(5)

John Byington and the Underground Railway

Location of home: "Just around the corner from the ME Church, where the road turns sharply to go to Morley."

Footprints of the Pioneers, A. W. Spalding, page 131.

Home was a stop: "The Byington farm was a stop on the so-called "underground railway." In later years the old slave Sojourner Truth was much esteemed in the Byington family...."

Review and Herald, June 22, 1944, "The First President of the General Conference, Grace Amadon.

John Byington: "He felt a lively sympathy for the oppressed -- (slavery question)...."

Review and Herald, January 25, 1887, page 57, "Sickness and death of Elder John Byington," G. W. Amadon.

For early maps and additional documentation write to:

Mrs. Mary H. Biondi
Historical Society
St. Lawrence County
Canton, New York 13617