NOV 1 RECD

Dear Elder Nigri,

It was with great interest that I read your article on the Back Page of the "Review" of Oct. 26, 1978 regarding my husband, Leo B. Halliwell.

The story is "fantastically untrue."

Although Elder Halliwell and I were not married very many years before he died, he told me probably all of his experiences while in Brazil and along the Amazon, and the one you mention was not one of them.

Sincerely,
