Dear Sister,-

As Elder White is very busy, and his correspondence had accumulated so greatly while he was gone east, he has turned your letter over to me to answer.

In reply to yours, I will say that I have made careful research but without success, trying to find the statement which you desired to learn the location of :- "The feeble ones, the aged ones and the little ones will be laid to rest before the time of trouble which precedes the coming of the Lord." A number of years ago, I read just such a statement, but have been unable to find it since, and have looked for it several times. The only statement I know of now, that comes the nearest to that one is found in "Counsels On Health" page 375;- "Many will be ~~be~~ laid away to sleep before the fiery ordeal of the time of trouble shall come upon our world."

If, in our research work, we should find the statement wanted, we will be very glad to let you know where we ~~find~~ it.

Wishing you the many blessings of the Lord in your work for Him, I am

Sincerely your sister in Jesus,

Stella B. Lowry
