

DID AG DANIELLS REFUSE PRAYER AND ANOINTING ON DEATHBED?

You say that you have been told that Elder A. G. Daniells refused to have special prayer or anointing for healing because he was not a strict vegetarian. This rumor is not true. There was special prayer and anointing for Elder Daniells. I remember it very distinctly, and I remember the comments of some of the brethren that they felt that the prayers would not be answered because he had not lived in strict conformity to the health reform principles which this people hold.
